

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SPEAKER:

David Soubly, CISA

TOPIC: Business Continuity:
Resilience Challenges In Today's Complex World

Thank you to our September speaker, David Soubly. His presentation cover general principles associated with business continuity and business resilience, including how the world has changed recently and what this means for preparedness and recovery.

To thank our membership for their continued support, once again we will be giving away 6 free admissions to our 2019 SEMCACFE Annual Conference. The rules are:

- 1) You must be a member of the local chapter.
- 2) You must attend a minimum of 6 of the 8 meetings held from September 2018 through April 2019.

3) The free admissions will be awarded to the top 6 members who attend the most meetings. If there are more than 6 members that qualify there will be a drawing to determine who wins.

Members, we will be taking a vote at the October monthly meeting to update our chapter bylaws to include the following:

The Southeast Michigan Chapter Association of Certified Fraud Examiners is closing our Board of Directors meetings to chapter members and guests. When chapter members wish to address the Board, a member shall contact the current chapter president at least 30 days prior to the next meeting.

The Southeast Michigan Chapter is working to increase our outreach and professional networking at colleges and universities as well as in our community. Join us as we relentlessly strive to promote fraud prevention and detection through educational training programs. Thank you for your continued support.

Barbara Netter, Chapter President

October Speaker:

Sheila Flanagan, CPA, CFE, CRMA

Topic:

"Presentation Skills, Building Effective Visual Aids, and How to Present Data"

Sheila Flanagan spent several years on GM's corporate audit staff leading and executing financial, operational, and compliance audits, investigations, and consultative projects.

Recently, she stepped into a different role within GM' Vehicle Safety department to lead and coordinate field actions and product investigations.

She began her career at Ernst & Young working as an external auditor and senior consultant in the Assurance and Financial Investigation & Dispute Service practices.

Flanagan received a master's degree in business administration and bachelor's degree in accounting from Central Michigan University.
